WESTERN AIRCRAFT APPOINTS REGIONAL DIRECTOR OF AIRCRAFT SALES

Boise, Idaho -Western Aircraft, Inc. – August 1, 2005 – Western Aircraft has named Scott Clarey Regional Director of Aircraft Sales, effective immediately.

As Regional Director of Aircraft Sales, Clarey will be responsible for sales of the Pilatus PC-12 in Alaska, Oregon, Washington, and Montana. Additionally, he will be responsible for sales of the ATG Javelin specifically in Montana. Clarey will focus on further developing this region of the country under the leadership of Philip Winters, Vice President of Aircraft Sales.

Philip Winters stated that “Scott’s pedigree of an aviation family has cemented his love of aviation while his business acumen, personality, and enthusiasm have cemented a successful business career. I am excited to round out our team with Scott.”

Prior to Western Aircraft, Clarey was working in the aircraft financing and leasing industry. Clarey not only brings experience from the aircraft industry, but he also has a broad knowledge in many other areas of business such as international recruiting, telecommunications, and financial planning. Clarey has been a licensed pilot since 1989, and holds a Bachelor Degree from the University of California, Irvine.
